- 11) the defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
- 12) the defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court; and
- 13) as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.

DEFENDANT: Jerome L. Neal, Jr.
CASE NUMBER: 3:12CR30096-001-GPM

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Defendant shall pay any financial penalty that is imposed by this Judgment and that remains unpaid at the time of supervised release, or during the term of probation.

Defendant shall provide the probation officer and the Financial Litigation Unit of the United States Attorney's Office with access to any requested financial information. Defendant is advised that the probation office may share financial information with the Financial Litigation Unit.

Defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, judgments and/or any other anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court ordered financial obligation. Defendant shall immediately notify the probation officer of the receipt of any indicated monies.

Defendant shall not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer.

Defendant shall participate as directed and approved by the probation officer in treatment for narcotic addiction, drug dependence, or alcohol dependence, which includes urinalysis and/or other drug detection measures and which may require residence and/or participation in a residential treatment facility, or residential reentry center. The number of drug tests shall not exceed 52 tests in a one-year period. Any participation will require complete abstinence from all alcoholic beverages. The defendant shall pay for the costs associated with substance abuse counseling and/or testing based on a copay sliding fee scale as directed and approved by the United States Probation Office. The copay shall never exceed the total costs of counseling.

Defendant shall cooperate fully with the Internal Revenue Service in determining and paying any tax liabilities. The defendant shall provide to the Internal Revenue Service all requested documents and information for purposes of any civil audits, examinations, collections, or other proceedings. It is further ordered that the defendant shall file accurate income tax returns and pay all taxes, interest, and penalties due and owing by her to the Internal Revenue Service.

Defendant shall submit his person, residence, real property, place of business, vehicle, and any other property under his control to a search, conducted by any United States Probation Officer and such other law enforcement personnel as the probation officer may deem advisable and at the direction of the United States Probation Officer, at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release, without a warrant. Failure to submit to such a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises and other property under the defendant's control may be subject to a search pursuant to this condition.

Defendant shall be restricted to his residence on home detention for the first 6 months of probation or until notified otherwise by the probation officer. The defendant shall be restricted to his residence at all times except for employment; education; religious services; medical, substance abuse, or mental health treatment; attorney visits; court appearances; court-ordered obligations; or other activities as pre-approved by the officer. The defendant shall be monitored by the Location Monitoring technology as determined by the officer and shall abide by all technology requirements. Further, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of participation in the location monitoring program as directed by the court and/or the probation officer.
